Death of a Vernon Pioneer.

Vernon May 16—The death of Mr. Daniel Jewell occurred here Monday afternoon. She was stricken with paralysis about three weeks ago, from which she never recovered.

Mrs. Jewell was of Canadian birth but came to this country in early life, and had lived until July 8 would have been 84 years old. She had been a resident of the village for the past 33 years. Her husband died eight years ago and since that time she has been patiently serving as best as her years and poor health would enable her, and waiting the call to join her companion.

She was a member of the Methodist church, and the sincerity of her faith is expressed in the text which she chose many years ago to be used at her funeral. "I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith."

She is survived by a nephew, Bert Johnson, who was left an orphan, and whom she and her husband cared for since infancy as their own child; also one brother, T. E. Johnson of Owosso. Her nephew, Bert, and brother, T. E. Johnson and wife of Owosso, and relatives of Mr. Jewell, Eli Decker and wife of Lansing, were with her at the time of her death. The funeral was held at the home Wednesday afternoon, Rev. L. H. Stevens officiating.

YOU are at the forks of the road. The guidepost names one "ECONOMY" and the other "EXTRAVAGANCE." Which road are you going to take? Economy leads to Success. Extravagance leads to Failure.

Are you going to take the road to Success and Prosperity? The first milestone is a bank account—it acts as a check against extravagance. The safe, sane way for a man to live is to work hard and always save a part of what he earns, and bank that part. Nothing can stop that sort of a man on his road to Success.
